

MR. Powell, your pursuit of media consolidation in line with your master Bush' agenda of give aways to huge corporations may line fat cats wallets short term, but the first amendment is taking a hit. Peoples access to information regarding the administration's trampling of environmental safeguards, issues regarding Iraq, etc are being hampered. You cozying up to this charade brings shame upon your family name. chuck woolworth, grand rapids mich